

The Smart Verdict : GUILTY

A Retrospective

PAMELA (WOJAS) SMART and her husband, Gregory, on their wedding day in May 1989. The couple lived in Derry at the time of his murder on May 1, 1990.

WILLIAM FLYNN, right, and Cecelia Pierce were students at Winnacunnet High School in 1989 and are shown here in a photo taken by Pamela Smart while working on a student video project.

CECELIA PIERCE (standing) was a student at Winnacunnet High School in Hampton and worked with Smart (seated) on a student video project. Smart was the school district media coordinator when she met Pierce.

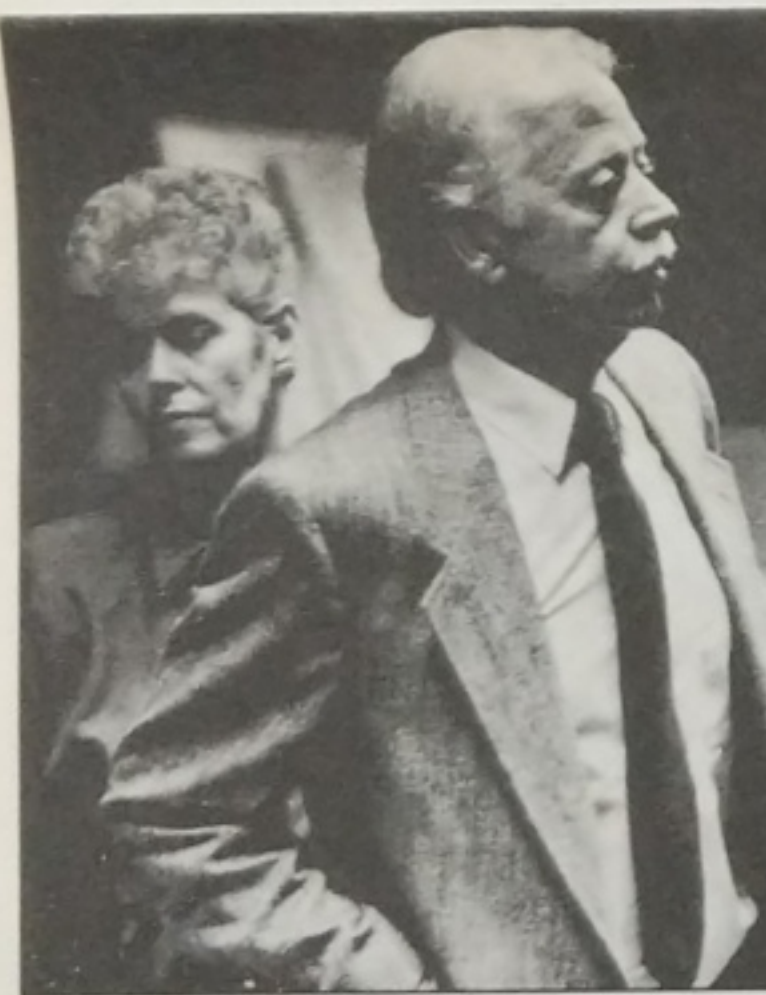

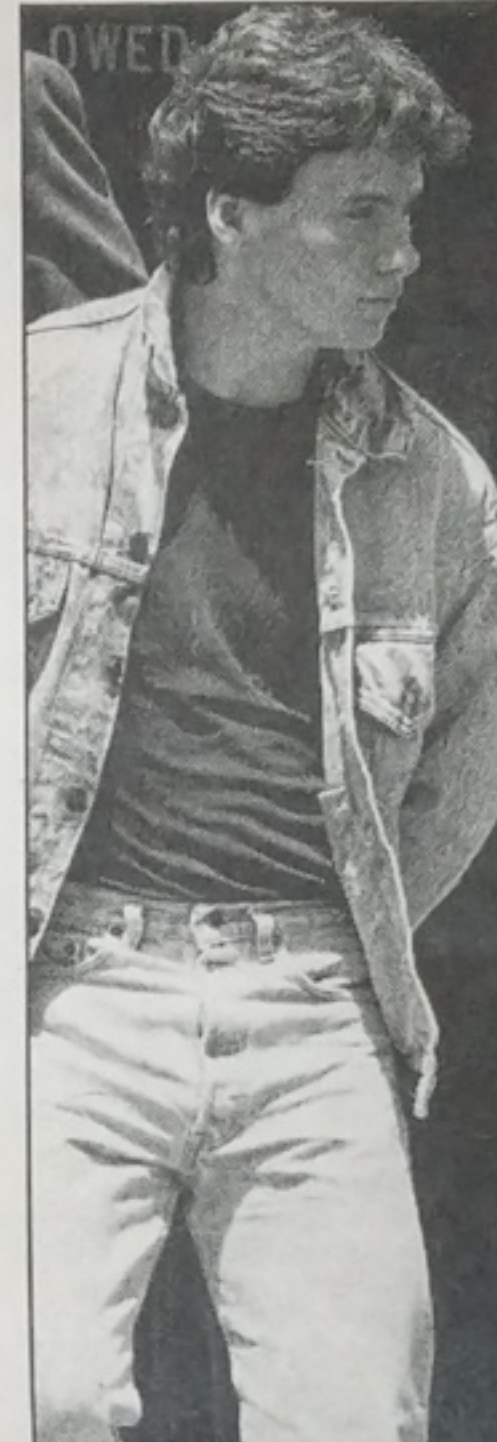

CECELIA PIERCE is shown testifying Jan. 17, 1991. She wore a concealed microphone and recorded her conversations with Smart for police. Pierce has signed a contract for $100,000 to tell her side of the story.

Tami Plyler Photo

Union Leader File Photos

SHOWN IN TOP PHOTOS are the three teenagers who confessed to murdering Gregory Smart. Shown testifying in Pamela Smart's accomplice to murder trial are, from left, William Flynn, who spent his 17th birthday on the witness stand and confessed to pulling the trigger; Patrick Randall, 17; and Vance Lattime Jr., also known as J.R. Shown in the bottom photos are the three youths as they appeared at their arraignment in June 1990.

AP Photo

GREGORY'S PARENTS, William and Judith Smart, attended their daughter-in-law's trial in Rockingham County Superior Court, Exeter.

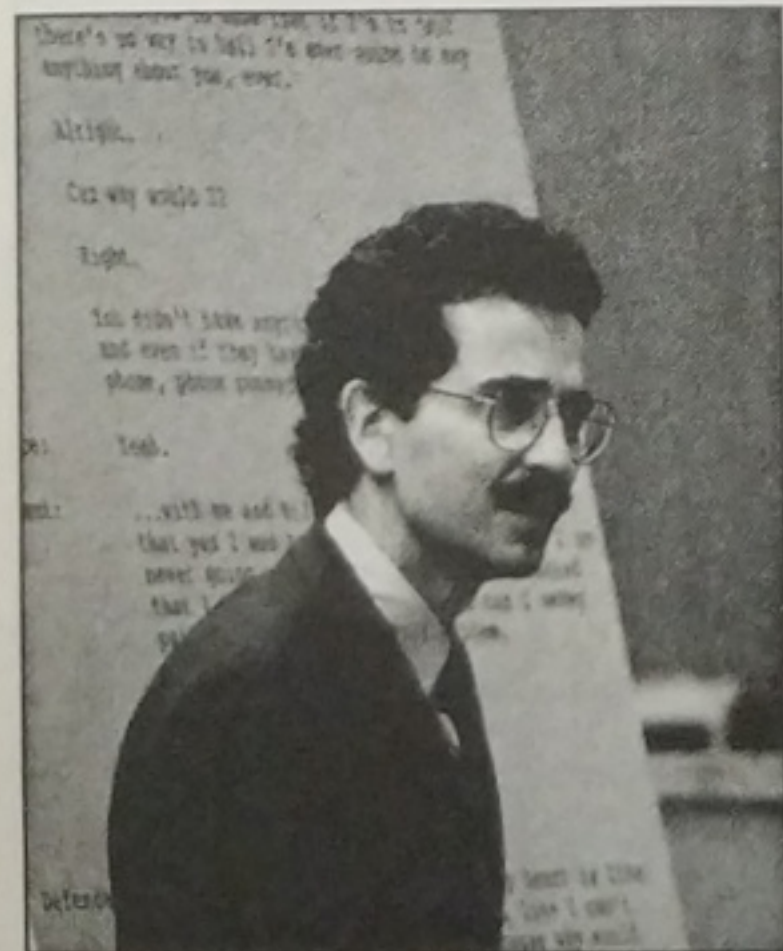

AP Photo

PAMELA SMART on Wednesday had to maneuver past hordes of media and television cameras. The trial has captured the attention of the world.

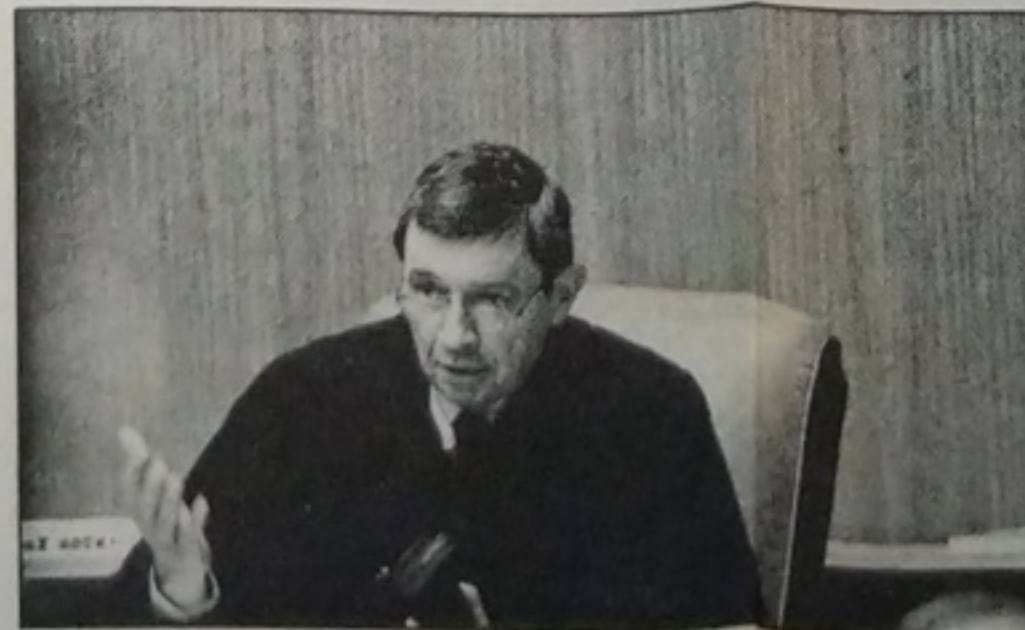

Tami Plyler Photo

DEFENSE LAWYERS Paul Twomey, left, and Mark Sisti of Chichester represented Smart.

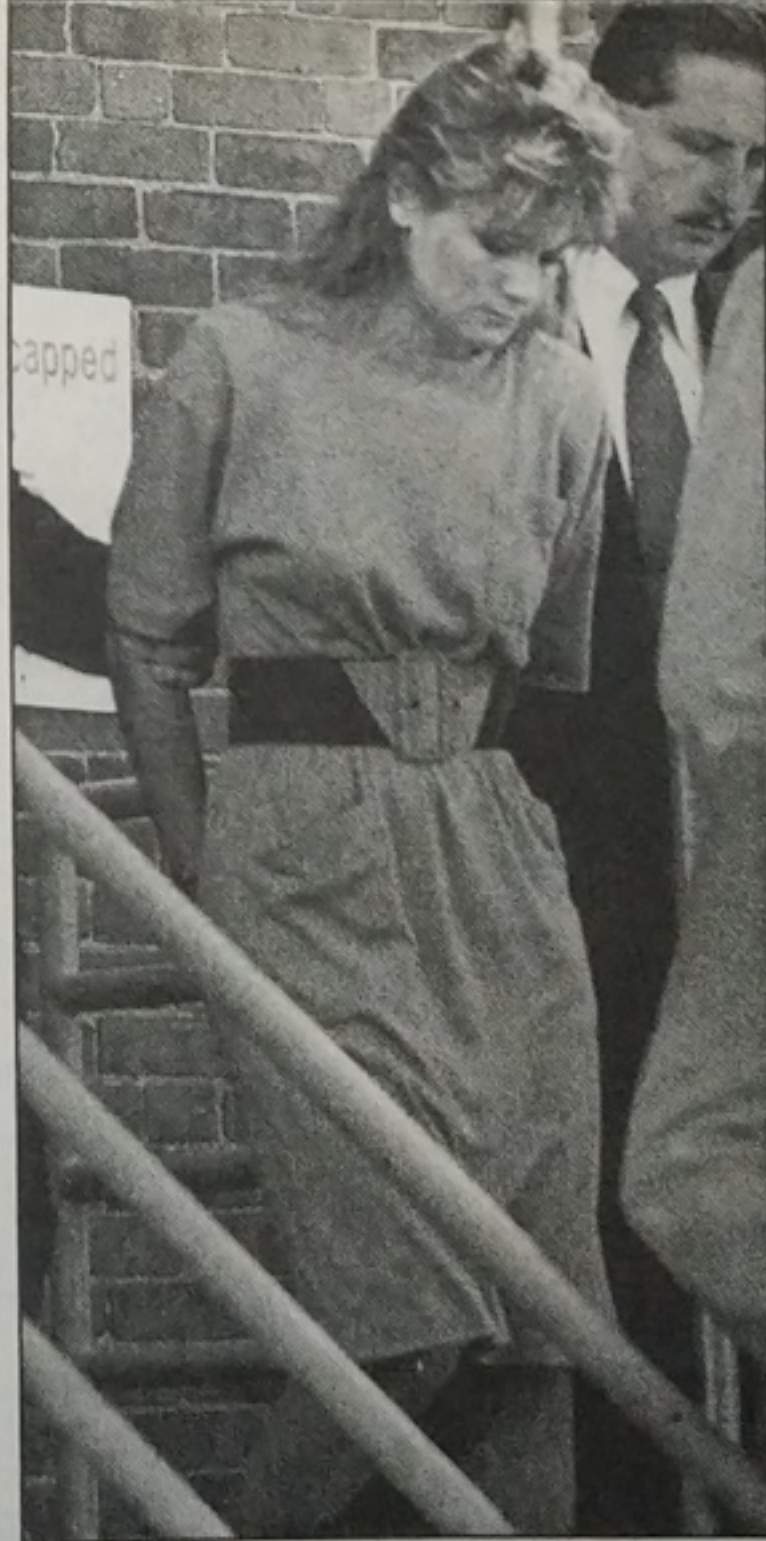

George Naum/Union Leader

PROSECUTOR Paul Magglio of the Attorney General's Office, in his closing remarks to the jury, called Smart's explanation of the secretly recorded tapes made with Cecelia Pierce by police "a last-ditch effort to explain the most incriminating evidence you could ever ask for in a case."

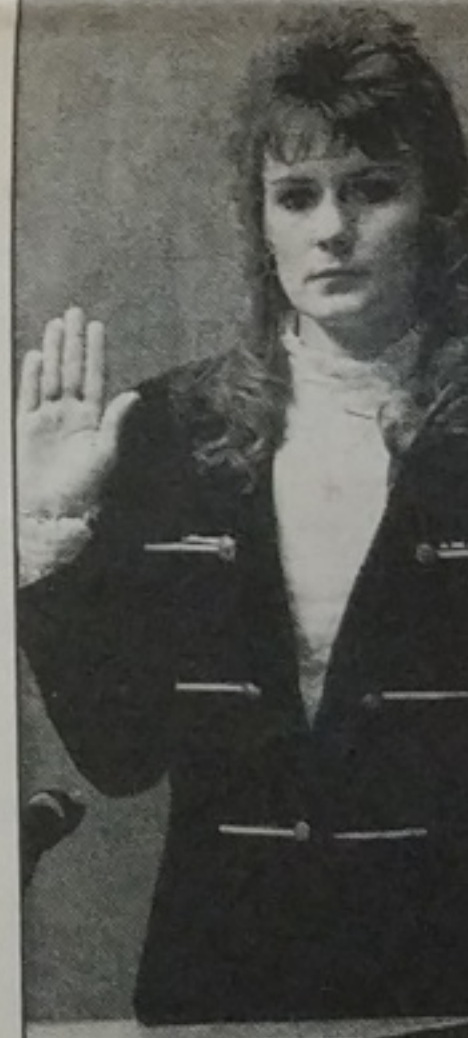

George Naum Photo

David Burroughs/Union Leader

PAMELA SMART is led from the Derry District Court after her arraignment for accomplice to murder on Aug. 1, 1990.

SMART took the stand in her own defense last Monday and calmly told the jury she had an affair with student William Flynn but had nothing to do with the murder of her husband.

REAL ESTATE BUYERS!
N.H. HOMES/PROPERTIES
FOR SALE BY OWNERS
ALL PRICES • ALL AREAS
FOR FREE LIST
Call
1-800-321-SOLD
BUY SELLER

MANCHESTER UROLOGY ASSOCIATES

JAMES F. CONWAY, JR., M.D.
MAX K. WILLSCHER, M.D.
STEPHEN J. SMITH, M.D.

would like to announce the relocation of their office to:

106 TARRYTOWN ROAD
SUITE 200
MANCHESTER, N.H. 03103
(603) 669-9200

Effective Monday, March 25, 1991

JUDGE Douglas Gray immediately sentenced Pamela Smart yesterday to the mandatory term of life in prison without parole.